A TECHNO-CULTURAL AND LITERARY FESTIVAL

Dr. AMBEDKAR INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY FOR HANDICAPPED, KANPUR

About us

Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Technology for Handicapped is an autonomous Institute established by the government in 1997. Institute is committed to improve the delivery system through services, initiatives, institutional & human resources & build partnership to provide high quality, affordable, accountable, responsive & integrated services. It is one of the best technology institutions especially for person with disability. The aim of the Institute is to provide education, of the highest standard and to provide leadership in technological innovation. The entire campus is barrier free especially designed for Divyangs. The institute has already marked its presence as a leading technical institute. It is also one of the three institutes which are being directly funded by the world bank.

Why Shankhnaad?

Shankhnaad is an annual inter-collegiate techno-cultural and literary festival organized by the students of "Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Technology for Handicapped, Kanpur". Being one of the major events it is being organized with the aim to develop interest, conviction to participate and encourage the hidden talents and innovation among the students. Along with having the largest number of blood donors from a college within Kanpur we are also deliberately working on Unnat Bharat Abhiyan under which we have adopted five villages. We have also been actively involved in the SWACHH BHARAT ABHIYAN and strive to promote many more multiple social causes through Shankhnaad.

Pilgrimage to Infinity

Just like the echo of conch shell, the epic clap of our celebration will roll from soul to soul and grow forever and ever. SHANKHNAAD this year isn't just a fest over some traits, it is the union of mind with the spirit. It is about the infinitude, it is the magical journey to be unveiled gradually. It is about starting a festival of tradition and triumph for time immemorial.
